

Head of the Lakes
United Way

10 REASONS WHY OUR COMMUNITY GIVES BACK

1

"We are beyond proud to support Head of the Lakes United Way in its endeavor to strengthen the health and well being of our neighbors because we share a common goal: to build strong communities."

-Chad Ronchetti
Director of Project Planning and Development
Kraus-Anderson

"WHEN WE GIVE BACK,
WE CONTRIBUTE TO THE HEALTH AND
VIBRANCY IN THE COMMUNITIES
WHERE WE SERVE."

-Coborn's, Inc.

2

"We give because it's the right thing to do and we always want to help the community. I look forward to the future with United Way and my committee here."

-Willie Winklesky
Bernick's Beverages and Vending

7

"We donate because we want to make a difference."

-Cassie Levings
Northern States Supply

3

"Building strong communities is a core value of Consolidated Communications, one we live out through employee volunteerism and company giving."

-Sam Gett
Consolidated Communications

"The Jamar Company chooses to support United Way because of the alignment of our values and United Way's mission, to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good."

-Kayla Johnson | The Jamar Company

4

"We have a very generous and caring staff that understands the importance of helping others in need. We continually looks for ways to give back as a company. Employees never cease to amaze me with their generosity!"

-Mars Supply

9

"The accountability the HLUW provides not only to the individual donor that their money is protected but also when other philanthropic organizations view your entity and notice you receive United Way Funding, it comes with credibility that the organization has been vetted for mission work."

-Russ Salgy | Valley Youth Center

5

"We choose to support a local organization that helps our immediate area in so many different ways."

-Young & Associates

10

"We support United Way because they are a great example of an organization that aligns with our strategic goal through the variety of programs they support that make a positive impact on our community and our region."

-Ken Johnson
President and CEO
North Shore Bank of Commerce

