

CONNECTING PEOPLE TO VOLUNTEER PROJECTS IN OUR COMMUNITY

The HLUW Volunteer Center serves as a “one stop shop” for individuals and groups looking for a volunteer opportunity in our local communities.

HEAD OF THE LAKES UNITED WAY
VOLUNTEER CENTER

The primary goal of the United Way Volunteer Center is to promote volunteerism, as well as mobilize and coordinate volunteer efforts to create positive change in communities. It serves as a bridge between volunteers who want to make a difference and organizations that need volunteer support.

1,285

Hours donated by community members connected to volunteer opportunities with local nonprofits and HLUW.

412

Volunteers took part in a HLUW Day of Caring project.

140+

Community projects completed with the help of HLUW volunteers.

Head of the Lakes United Way is grateful for all the dedicated volunteers that make a local impact.

Get more information on our website: hlunitedway.org/volunteer